

Susanna Wesley Foundation Annual Conference

Tuesday 18th June 2024, Elm Grove, University of Roehampton

Additional information

WiFi

Complimentary Wi-Fi internet access is available in all public areas on campus. Details will be provided at registration.

Travel directions from central London

By Train

From Waterloo station to Barnes Station takes around 20 minutes with trains running approximately four times an hour. It's a short walk (10/15 mins) from Barnes Station to the university main entrance or a short ride on the 265 or 419 bus.

By Tube

Nearest station is Putney Bridge (District Line). Take the 265 bus immediately outside the station which stops outside the main entrance of the university. The journey should take around 15/20 minutes but please allow waiting time for the bus to arrive.

By Car

All cars arriving on campus need to be registered with Security Services. If you would like to pass your car details to Liz Pickett by 14th June, she can do this for you in advance to avoid the need for you to do so on the day (liz.pickett@roehampton.ac.uk). If you decide to drive on the day, the Security office is marked on the campus map. Spaces are not reserved but it is highly likely there will be available spaces.

Other information

There is no need to print any tickets; your name will be on an attendee list at the registration desk.

You will be asked at registration to give your consent or otherwise to be photographed or filmed during the day. Photos and footage may be used on our website, social media accounts or promotional materials.

We have adopted a 'default veg' policy, whereby vegetarian food will be offered by default at catered events. 'DefaultVeg' is an initiative of Creature Kind.

At the conference, the programme, biographies, descriptions of breakout workshops and plenary presentations, and campus map will be available via a QR code rather than as paper copies, to reduce our carbon footprint.

Books authored by some of the conference presenters will be available to purchase; card payments only.

The conference closes at 5.15pm. We hope you will join us at the drinks reception which follows immediately after the final plenary.
