

Susanna Wesley Foundation Annual Conference

Tuesday 18th June 2024, Elm Grove, University of Roehampton

Programme

09.15	Registration opens	Elm Grove lobby
09.45	Welcome from Sue Miller , SWF Director	Oak Suite
	Rachel Griffiths Living Between Two Worlds
10.15	Oded Adomi Leshem Hope as a Catalyst for Social Change
11.00	Q&A
11.10	Coffee	Lime Tree Suite
11.30	Munyurangabo Benda Living and/as Learning Hope	Oak Suite
12.15	Conversation with Oded Leshem and Munyurangabo Benda , facilitated by Emma Pavey
12.55	Tazim Fatima Planting Peace, Growing Hope
13.00	Lunch	Lime Tree Suite
13.50	Bevan Powell Hope for Justice	Oak Suite
14.20	Heather Major Lamenting Hope
14.40	Q&A
15.00	Breakout workshops. Choose one:
	Elin Kelsey and Steven van den Heuvel Activating Hope in the Climate Justice Crisis	Oak Suite
	Lia Shimada When Hope is Challenged: discussing death	DB 220
	Heather Major Expressing Lament	DB 221
	Rachel Griffiths Theatre for Transformation: of ourself, our neighbour, our world	The Well
16.00	Tea	Lime Tree Suite
16.30	Conversation and reveal of Bill Crooks' mural	Oak Suite
17.00	Jo Cox-Darling Closing reflection
17.15	Close and drinks reception	Lime Tree Suite

The Revd Nicola Morrison, the Southlands College Chaplain, will be with us throughout the day. If you would like to talk with her pastorally please do make yourself known to her, either by asking for a conversation or leaving a note with your name on it in the box provided. Nicola will then invite you to a quiet space where you can talk confidentially.