

Susanna Wesley Foundation 10th Anniversary Symposium

Wednesday 26th March, Southlands College, University of Roehampton

Learning to make a difference: journeying with the Susanna Wesley Foundation

Programme

See biographies pdfs for information about contributors

From 11.00am Exhibition: Remarkable Women: Making a Difference, The Well (see map)

1.30pm Poster exhibition, coffee/tea and registration

2.00pm Welcome, SWF's journey, today's programme

Learning to make a difference through the life of Billy Waters

Mary Shannon and Himan Heidari (University of Roehampton)

Impact project based at the University of Roehampton, supported by SWF

Learning about collaborative learning and making a difference through action research

James Butler (University of Roehampton)

Clare Watkins (Durham University, formerly University of Roehampton)

Graham Jones (Methodist Church)

Andrew Orton (Durham University)

Stan Brown (Methodist Church and SMT Trustee)

Jonathan Dean (Methodist Church and SMT Trustee)

Ash Cocksworth (University of Roehampton)

Reflections on research projects supported by SWF, some with the Methodist Church

For summaries of the projects featured, see the summaries pdf on the event page

3.30pm Coffee/Tea - in room QB 146

4.00pm Tumaini Women Kenya – Learning for economic, social and community benefit

Ayse Demir (University of Roehampton)

Research project supported by SWF

Learning for and from practice and academic study

Sally Rush, Cris Gangemi

DTh students at the University of Roehampton supported by SWF

Learning for systemic change

Megan Seneque (SWF Honorary Fellow)

Katie Deadman-Vernall (Methodist Church)

Reflection on work with the Methodist Church supported by SWF

Past, present, future: people, projects, partnerships

5.30pm Close

Proceed to Drinks Reception and Celebration Dinner at Grove House (see map)

Includes an address from The Rev'd Helen Cameron, President of the Methodist Conference